

Tolidos, A.E.R

Oh please don't look at me that way don't you hear my heart beating I'm running out of things to say as I see you leaving

And looking back at the things I did Yeah looking back at the things I said
If I could only make you stay
And if you stayed a minute more I bet that I could get a smile And get you to stay for a while

Only you can help me thru this night
just take my hand it'll be just fine
oh. . and here's my heart just take it
cause you've all ready taken it from me

You have such beautiful eyes my heart just cannot take it I hope it isn't just me how could this possibly be I hope this moment could last forever!

Only you can help me thru this night
just take my hand it'll be just fine
oh. . and here's my heart just take it
cause you've all ready taken it from me

and here's my heart don't break it
and here's my heart dont break it caouse you've allready stolen it from me. . .
