

Tom Felton, If you could be anywhere

If I had a plane,
then where would I fly to?
If I had to use my brain for something else tell me what would I do?
And if I had a strange conversation with a lady in a waiting room about leaving all this doom and gloom
If you could be anywhere where would you be?
If you could be anywhere
would you be there with me?
If I could be anywhere
I'd be there.
If I could be anywhere
I'd be there with you, girl.
Take my chances,
Fake my glances,
Wait those answers anywhere but
take my chances,
I'll fake my glances,
Wait my answers,
anywhere but here.
oh oh
I'll do it anywhere but here
mmmm
I'll do it anywhere but here
