Tom Gabel, I Can't See You, But I Know You're T

I sent you flowers today
But they didn't get delivered
The company charged me anyways
I'm picking up bad habits
I pick up new ones almost everyday
I pick them up while I'm on my way
Most of the the time I feel like I don't belong
But...
[Chorus:]
I got my new favorite record today
My favorites change every single day
Except you, you'll always be number one
You are my future, you're my memories
Please don't ever forget about me
You mean more to me, then any song
I was asleep when you called last night
You left a message
But I didn't check it
There's a distance between us
That's not a metaphor
It's just poetry from me to you
Most of the time I feel so uninspired
But...
[Chorus x2]
