

Tom Helsen, Change Yourself

My baby's in place
she rocks it always everybody looks at you
and i'm amazed

My baby's in place
i've seen it always everybody takes you down and i'm okay
all because of you

Don't you even wanna
change yourself some more you don't understand love you don't understand
don't you even wanna
see "the other you"
i would say nothing more and i will see things through

My baby's in place
one of these days
everybody changes
and i will stay

I called it in for the guy next-door
everybody works it and i will hold.
