

Tom Jones, If I Ever Had To Say Good Bye

If I ever had to say good bye to you Let the world come to an end it wouldn't matter to me then I wouldn't want to live with just your memory Deep inside myself
I never would be free
This life would hold no happiness for me

I could never say hello to someone new
If I looked into her eyes I'd be ashamed and I despise myself for trying to recapture what was gone Just an imitation dream to wish upon I'd only hurt her and that kind of love is wrong

If I ever had to say good bye to you I can't imagine where I go or what I'll do

There is no way I could face
the world alone
I'd be a puppy dog scared
and lost without a home

So please stay with me until our time is through Let me look into your heart and know that we can never part and I will always try to make you happy too
And the tears I shed are for a love that's true

You make me laugh,
you make me cry
You make me want to live or die Just let me look into your heart
I know that we can never part Then I'll never have to say good bye to you
