

Tom Lehrer, S-N (Snore, Sniff, And Sneeze)

Like a rooster loves a hen,
Like a lion loves his den,
Like Barbie loves Ken,
I love to do things that begin with "S-N".
For example...

I love to sneeze ("a-choo")
(spoken) "Pardon me please" ("a-choo")
I like to sniffle,
It really feels nice.
One handkerchief'll
Just never suffice.
But brother watch out for the breeze
When I sneeze ("a-choo, a-choo, a-choo")

I love to sniff ("sniff")
(spoken) "Just take a whiff" ("sniff")
I also like snarling,
It feels good to me.
Snarling is darling,
I'm sure you'll agree.
But I'm even happier if
I can sniff, ("sniff")
and sneeze ("a-choo")

I love to snore ("snore")
(spoken) "It's more like a roar" ("snore")
I like to snooze;
I like resting my head.
I take off my shoes
And I snuggle in bed.
Sometjimes I just lie on the floor
And snore, ("snore")
And sniff, ("sniff")
And sneeze ("a-choo, a-choo, a-choo")

Sometimes I just like to snicker, tee-hee,
Or snub any snob who is snotty to me.
And whenever I have a few moments to spend,
(spoken) "I can snoop on a neighbor or snitch on a friend!"
But much more than any of these,
I love to snore and to sniff and to sneeze.
("snore, sniff, a-choo")
("snore, sniff, a-choo")
("snore, sniff, a-choo")
("snore, sniff, a-choo")
("snore")
