

Tom Petty And The Heartbreakers, Travelin'

Well I'm travelin', travelin' baby, travelin' on
Well it's good to see you but I can't stay long
No I've got a travelin' fever, baby, got a travelin' jones
No don't look for me in the mornin', baby, I'm gonna be travelin' on

I'll be good, as good as gold
To the next or maybe better
Wait for me down the road
Keep one eye open for my letter

Cause I'm gonna be travelin', travelin' baby, travelin' on Lord it's good to see you but I can't stay long
Oh I've got a travelin' fever, baby, got a travelin' jones
Well don't look for me in the mornin', baby, I'm gonna be travelin'
Gonna be travelin', gonna be travelin' on

I'll be up before the sun

Get a big jump on the morning
You should have known all along
You should have known you'd get no warning
And I'm gonna be travelin', travelin' baby, travelin' on
But lord it's good to see you but I won't stay long
Oh I got a travelin' fever, baby, I got a travelin' jones
Yeah don't look for me in the mornin', baby, I'm gonna be travelin'
Gonna be travelin', gonna be travelin' on

Travelin' on, travelin' on
Travelin' on, travelin' on

Well I'm travelin', travelin' baby, travelin' on Yeah it's good to see you but I can't stay long
Yeah I got a travelin' fever, baby, a travelin' jones
Well don't look for me in the mornin', baby, I'm gonna be travelin'
Gonna be travelin', gonna be travelin' on
