

Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers, We Stand A Chance

Stand back from me honey
Because I don't know what I might do next
No I'm surprised by this, frightened by this
Nothin' ever got me so out of my head, baby

We stand a chance
We stand a chance
Yeah, and I could be wrong, but you never know
We could stand the chance of a real love Oh, God knows I love you
God knows I do,
Baby will you let me just prove it to you
Come here to me baby, come here to me now
I wanna talk to you, talk to you
And tell you somehow, that

We stand a chance
We stand a chance
Yeah, and I could be wrong, but you never know
We could stand the chance of a real love

I'm so moved, I'm so changed
My whole world is a fountain of flame

We stand a chance
We stand a chance
Yeah, and I could be wrong, but you never know
We could stand the chance of a real love
