

Tom Wehrle, Moving On

Four years past you by
In the blink of an eye
Things still don't feel right
With the memories still in your mind

Sometimes it's alright to say goodbye, try

Moving on, and I pray it don't take long
And if I see you again, I hope you find you belong
Moving on

Four years past tonight
Do you think you'll see the Light
That will lead you to the day
With brighter skys and different rays

Sometimes it's alright to say goodnight, try

Moving on, and I pray it don't take long
And if I see you again, I hope you find you belong
Moving on

Your hearts been cracked
But there's no time for looking back
It will mend in time
And it will be fine, if you try

Moving on, and I pray it don't take long
And if I see you again, I hope you find you belong
Moving on, and I pray it don't take long
And if I see you again, I hope you find you belong
Moving on, and I pray it don't take long
Cause you belong
And it's not wrong
Moving on
