

Tom Wehrle, Sara's Song

Oh, can you see me
I'm over here waiting for you
To come and be where you used to be

How could you believe in things you've never seen
Your eyes are blind by what you hold inside

Sara...
I long to see you smile
Hold on...
Just stay with me awhile
Somewhere...
You'll see behind my eyes and know this love won't die

Oh, don't you know me anymore
You seem so cold so far away from here
But you don't know where to call your home

You fight to try and save your life
Try to hold to something you can't find

Sara...
I long to see you smile
Hold on...
Just stay with me awhile
Somewhere...
You'll see behind my eyes and know this love won't die
