

Tommy James, Another Hill To Climb

You say you'd never stay; what a shame.
You say that you think it's all over.
You know, I think it's all such a sad thing.
Everyday your heart's a little colder, and there's Chorus□

Still another hill to climb, yeah,
Still another hurt to get over.
Still another hill to climb, yeah,
Still another hill to climb.

Hey, we almost made it to the mountain.
Ooh, we almost saw the view.
Love can lead you down to the valley,
But girl, it don't get you through 'cause there's
Chorus

And there's still another hill to climb, yeah,
Still another hurt to get over.
repeat and fade
