

Tommy James, Give It All

And if you think you're goin' crazy
Remember, I got there before you.
The little demons used to chase me;
Had me thinkin' they were cool, fool!
Aw, give it all,
Don't believe in T.V. and the mall.
Aw, give it all,
Don't believe what you see anymore.

Don't be scared to be rejected.
Don't give in, they won't expect it.
You can do your dream, just give it all.

And if you think the ground is shakin',
It's just the sound of baby-boom!
All the good stuff has been taken;
'Ya think there's nothin' left for you, that ain't true.
Aw, give it all,
Don't believe in T.V. and the mall.
Aw, give it all,
Don't believe what you see anymore.

Don't look up if they impress you.
Don't look down, it may depress you.
It ain't that far if you fall, so give it all.

(guitar solo followed by an instrumental break and chorus adlibs)

So, grit your teeth and grind your axes,
Trust in God, and pay your taxes.
Go break down the wall, but give it all!
