

Tommy Page, I Still Believe In You And Me

I never thought I'd ever get this way
About anyone, I'd ever met before
It's been so long since you left that day
You said that you were looking, for something more
And as time goes on, I've found someone new
But she can't compare, to the love I found in you

And I, I still believe in you and me
And all the times we once shared
I, I know our love was meant to be
I still believe in you and me

I guess I should have, shared with you
All the feelings, I've kept inside
I try to convince myself were through
But in my eyes it shows, I just cannot hide
Well how could you let, something beautiful die
I'll take you to heaven if you just give me one, more try

Oh, and I, I still believe in you and me
And all the times we once shared
I, I know our love was meant to be
I still believe in you

Cause the memories been worth
All the pain and the hurt
But these jaded thoughts can see
That I still believe in you, and me
I know we can make it if you just give me one more try
I still believe, I still believe in you and me
