Tommy Roe, Everybody

Everybody! Everybody!

Everybody's had a broken heart now!

Everybody! Everybody!

Everybody's had the blues

Everybody! Everybody!

Everybody's blue when they're lonesome!

Everybody! Everybody!

Everybody's had the blues

One time or other everbody listen to me,

You loose somebody you love,

But that's no reason for you to break down and cry!

I said a hey everybody!

Everybody!

Everybody's had a lonely moment!

Everybody! Everybody!

Everbody's had the blues

One time or other everbody listen to me,

You loose somebody you love,

But that's no reason for you to break down and cry!

I said a hey everybody!

Everbody!

Everybody's had a lonely moment!

Everybody! Everybody!

Everbody's had the blues I said a hey everybody!

Everybody!

Everybody's blue when they're lonesome!

Everybody! Everybody!

Everybody's had the blues
