

Tommy Shaw, Somewhere In The Night

Driving through the midnight rain
Blinded by the light
Thinking about those things you told me
Late last night

Words keep running round in my mind
All the anger in your eyes
The way you told me we were over
The way you cried

Oh I drove through the night
The rain just kept beating down
The first sign of morning
I stopped in this strange little town

Somewhere in the night
The answer's escaping me now
Somewhere in the night
It's hiding in the shadows

Somewhere in the night
The answer is waiting for me
And I won't see
Until the morning light

Found a place to drink some coffee
Sat staring at the phone
Kept thinking of the way I left you
So all alone

Remembered all the things we've been through
So I got the phone and dialed
I'd give up every thing I had
If I could see you smile

Oh it rang and it rang
So nervous I started to shake
You picked up and answered
So lonely I felt my heart break

(The following chorus and verse is printed on the liner notes with the CD, but it was left out of the final release)

Somewhere in the night
The answer's escaping me now
Somewhere in the night
It's hiding in the shadows

Somewhere in the night
The answer is waiting for me
And I won't see
Until the morning light

Oh the rain's so hypnotic
It just keeps on pouring down
And in its fascination
I can see myself turning around

(End of extra verse)

Somewhere in the night
Somewhere in the night

'Till darkness lifts its veil
Until I see your face
Until the morning light
