

TONES AND I, Dreaming

Am I slowly drifting away from you, my dear?
Are you at peace about it
Or should we try to work things out?
'Cause the Lord knows they say you're better off without me
And I've been slowly dying
Since the angels brought you down

Is this just a fantasy?
A fucked up game of make-believe?
Could you still be the one for me, oh?

Am I just dreaming?
Dreaming?
Am I just dreaming?
Dreaming?

And you know they all say that the truth will set you free
But I'm not ready for it
I don't really wanna see
'Cause when the road gets rough, I've always had you near
I don't wanna walk alone now
I don't wanna live without you here

Is this just a fantasy?
A fucked up game of make-believe?
Could you still be the one for me, oh?

Am I just dreaming? (Am I just still dreaming now?)
Dreaming (Baby, am I just still dreaming? I'm just dreaming)
Am I just dreaming? (Ooh, am I just dreaming?)
Dreaming (Oh, am I just still dreaming? I'm just)

Do you really wanna leave me, do you really wanna go?
And one day you might come running back, but I guess I'll never know
When the free rides all are over and there's no more pot of gold
Do you really wanna leave me, do you really wanna go?

Am I just dreaming?
