

Toni Braxton, Stupid

Loving you is stupid
Cause I know that you never really loved me
And you never gave me signs I'd see
That you and me were ever a possibility
And I feel so stupid
After all the noise you left me lonely to die
And you never gave me a reason why
And now I'm sittin' all alone and I cry

Am I stupid
I should've known you were only playing a game
And you and me would never be the same
You made me feel like I'm the one to blame
And I feel so stupid
After all those nights after nights that I tried
And all those conversations of lies
And I'm sittin' here all alone and I'm cryin'

I'm crying....

I can't believe you never knew how I felt
All this love and baby no one else
Could ever love me the way that you do
You're all I need and you treated me so wrong
And I can't believe it
How could you do me like you do
Cause I've been so stupid for you

Why do you do me like you do
You baby, You darlin'
You baby, You darlin'
You don't care
I'm stupid baby, I'm stupid darlin'
For you

And I'm the one played
And I'm the one left with all the shame
I'm stupid baby, Stupid darlin'
