

Toni Childs, I've Got To Go Now this man I married is buried deep and the more I try to wake him, the more he sleeps I used to think I knew this man the tenderness, not the back of his hand it's been two weeks since he last had a drink but the time bombs ticking, I can never sleep it would be easier if he did why do you stay here, stay with him?

why do you do it?
why do you treat us bad? when you've got two kids that love you and a wife that's missing you bad I've got to go now I've got to say goodbye don't try to stop us now and please don't you cry can't you see. we've all been through it it's all been said before with all these fears, for how many years can I keep coming back for more no more

must be addicted to all this pain cause I keep coming back for the shame dear god give me the strength to leave I've got to keep going, keep going this time

don't pull that stuff on me I've got the kids all packed up harry's in the back with his pick up truck jenny's fallen asleep again I've got to keep driving till i reach the end

I can't come back here anymore and I know it
and I know it
I can't come back here anymore
and I know it
