

Toni Childs, I Want To Walk With You

I keep finding this decision hard
I keep finding a room that's in the dark
I don't know, shed some light on it
Maybe save me from what i'm feeling this lonely day
Cause the secret's out and the secret's clear
What I want

Yes I want to walk with you
I want to hear you say "Yes I want that too"
I want to walk, I want to walk with you
I want to hear you say "Yes I want that too";

Can I tell you wht I cannot tell myself
In my thoughts there's a voice calling
"You will be lost"
In my life I deny, deny this heavy load
And obsession is clearly my need to know
Can I let it out, can I let you know
What I want

I don't want to run from this
It seem's like it'd be hard to do now
I don't want to lose my head
Falling down infront of you
I don't want to lose my head now
It could be so easy to do
If I could find a reason why
I'd stay here, stay here, stay here
Stay here, stay

I want to give love
I want to share
I want to show you how much I care
I want to hold you
I want to touch
I want to give my love away
I want to walk
I want to walk
I want to know what is in my soul
