

Tony Bennett, Without A Song

Yellow Days

Tony Bennett

Written by Alan Bernstein and Alvaro Carrillo

From his "Something" LP: Columbia 30280

It appears that NO ONE ever charted this in the Top 100 as a single but, per ASCAP, it must have been put on LP's by Johnny Mathis, Percy Faith, Sinatra and Ellington, the Sandpipers, the Baja Marimba Band and you-name-'em!!

I remember when the sunlight had a special kind of brightness

And laughter held a lover's kind of lightness

Yellow days, yellow days

She would hold me and the smile would spread around us so completely

And the softness of a kiss would linger sweetly

Yellow days, yellow days
