

Tony Carey, For You

for you I'd give up magic although magic's all I have and I would even practice feeling good when I feel bad

I don't need anyone but you
I don't love very much, but I love you I see you looking my way baby I'm looking your way too for you I'd give my hands even though my hands are tied I would love to run you ragged you can't say I never tried

I don't need anyone but you
I don't love very much, but I love you
I see you looking my way

for you, for you
there is nothing that I would not do
for you, for you
I'd tear these paper walls in two and I'd throw them all away (throw them all away)
I would throw them all away
I never had a lover that I couldn't see through but baby, I never had you for you I'd fight a lion if a lion came around I would swim right cross the ocean catch my breath and turn around

I don't need anyone but you
I don't love very much, but I love you
I see you looking my way

for you, for you
there is nothing that I would not do
for you, for you
I'd tear these paper walls in two
and I'd throw them all away (throw them all away)
I would throw them all away
I never had a lover that I couldn't see through

for you for you (you)
for you (you)
it's for you, for you (you)
(you) - (you)
