

Tony Iommi, Just Say No To Love

Jealous black and envy green
No one died and left you queen
Rotted flesh and broken bones
Place your ass upon the throne

Just say no to love
Just say no to love

Multihued transparency
Of the girl you'd like to be
A special frozen place in hell
Preserved for those who love themselves

Left is right and right is wrong
None for all and all for none
I've had enough, say no to love
No to love

Jon Lord said that you were killed
Not possibly be more thrilled
A party thrown, I'm so excited
Since you're dead, you're not invited
On your grave I made a wish
You beneath me is such bliss
A fitting end for a phony
You dumped me for Tony Iommi

None for all and all for none
I've had enough, say no to love
No to love

None for all and all for none
I've had enough, say no to love
No to love

None for all and all for none
I've had enough, say no to love
No to love

None for all and all for none
I've had enough, say no to love
No to love

Just say no to love
Just say no to love
