

Tony Iommi, Wasted Again

It's so long since you've been gone
Back to the place where you started from
And it is so wrong and now you're spun
There is nothing that you haven't done
And I say you're so blind
And you will never see
And you will fall beneath the cracks
You're wasted again
So how does it feel
And it never ends
Do you wanna heal?
And you wonder why
I see you my friend
Now this is goodbye
Cos you're wasted again
It's too bad, I did not know
It's everything that you had to go
And it is so sad you've lost the flow
It's such a crime that you feel so low
And you say you don't mind
And you will never see
And you will fall beneath the cracks
You're wasted again
So how does it feel
And it never ends
Do you wanna heal?
And you wonder why
I see you my friend
Now this is goodbye
Cos you're wasted again
You're wasted again
So how does it feel
And it never ends
Do you wanna heal?
And you wonder why
I see you my friend
Now this is goodbye
Cos you're wasted again
Wasted again
Wasted again
Wasted again
