

Tony Lucca, Kind

You could look me in the eye
And see the invitation Ive addressed to you
And gladly I would share with you
The beauty of my vivid point of view
To see a stranger with a smile
Man its been awhile but youre simply
You feel all right by me
You peacefully pass by
You suddenly seem high
Need a hand Im you man
Theres no need to ask me why
Cause if youre kind youre my kind
All the trouble we could leave behind
All the peace that we might find
If youre kind youre my kind
Im already on your side
Theres no honesty in false pride
We could take this time and leave it all behind
Oh brother if you kind
Brother are you kind
Hey hey, yeah
Brother are you kind
Yeah my sister are you kind
Hey tell me are you my kind
Tell me are you kind
