

Tony Orlando, Steppin' Out (Gonna Boogie Tonight)

No, I'm not upset, I'm not, lots of people get married
Please I'm in a hurry, won't you straighten my tie
I'll get by
She was something else, she was, now she's gonna get married
She's got herself carried off by somebody new
What can I do?

Don't worry 'bout me Ma, I'll be alright
I'm steppin' out, I'm gonna boogie tonight
Dancing and singing
Love songs 'til the dawn's early light
Oh, I'm stepping out, I'm gonna boogie tonight

Yes, I must admit we did, we looked so good together
Thought it would last forever but I'm a dreamer at heart
Dreams fall apart
Tell me where's my shoes, my groovy shoes
Enough about Diana, oh my sweet Diana
She's getting married today

Don't worry 'bout me Ma, I'll be alright
I'm steppin' out, I'm gonna boogie tonight
Dancing and singing
Love songs 'til the dawn's early light
Oh, I'm stepping out, I'm gonna boogie tonight

Oh my tender lips, they lied, they told me that she loved me
I'm just catching a cold, Ma
These aren't tears in my eyes

So don't worry 'bout me Ma, I'll be alright
See, I'm steppin' out, I'm gonna boogie tonight
Dancing and singing
Love songs 'til the dawn's early light
Oh, I'm stepping out, Ma, I'm gonna boogie tonight
