

Tony Vincent, Far Cry

I could speak with the tongues of angels i could speak with the tongues of men i could whisper the language of heaven like a chiming of bells in the wind

But it's a far cry from love
it's a far cry from love

I could open the doors of a mystery turn all the shadows to light keep faith when the odds are against me believe when i'm loosing my sight

But it's a far cry from love
it's a far cry from love
it's a far, far cry from love

All my passion, my tears and my blood sacrifice will never be enough i don't have a heart of love i am nothing more than hollow fading words nothing without love

I could open my arms to the hungry fight to keep flesh on their bones surrender my body for burning lay down everything that i own

But it's a far cry from love
it's a far cry from love
it's a far, far cry from love
it's a far cry from love.

From the album... 'Tony Vincent'.