

Too Bad Eugene, All At Once i got your message, it was crystal clear and you won't see me in your rearview mirror you've got to go you've got to chase down all your dreams a world i'll never know i've got my own ambitions to pursue here we are, we've got such different lives all at once, all at once, all we want is to live on both sides you know, i see you on my t.v. screen i sometimes wonder if that could be me i'm not that kind i've got a life here of my own a life that suits me fine i won't give up on me to live like you

here we are, we've got such different lives
and here we are walking the paths that we choose all at once, all at once, all or none for what's gained we must lose but i'll think of you forever not just waiting for your fall while i can't join your endeavor you can live it for us all and if these words don't reach your ears to hear it doesn't mean that they are not sincere i've got one life and rock 'n' roll won't buy more time i'll spend mine with my wife enjoy those lights
