

Too Much Joy, King Of Beers gonna feel like hell tomorrow so i won't go to sleep tonight na na na na na na sorrow everything's gonna be all right i am invincible

i have no fear
i am benevolent
i am the king of beer

i love all my friends i wish they would go away i say stupid things forgotten them all by monday please don't remind me a man's bar is his castle and this stool is my throne why am i such an asshole? why am i here alone?

she's so beautiful
i swear i'd sleep with her brother i'm so beautiful
i never met her but i love her please look over here

i'd take a trip
but anywhere i'd go
my head would come along with me
