

Toploader, Have & To Hold

Standing on the edge of something special
Seven ways that we could go
Were hanging on by a thread
And I Should tell ya
Six would really shed a load
Heaven I will show ya
Hold my arms around ya
Everything you do and say
That's Ok sure want it right
Show you how live for tomorrow night
Wishing away on the way to your soul
We'll sail away to have and hold

Forever more and I see you skin
Groaning on in my bed
Without a clock comes round
Should I make another move instead
Heaven I will show ya
Hold my arms around ya
Everything you do and say
That's Ok sure want it right
Show you how to live show how to die
We'll sail away on the way to your soul
We'll sail away to have and to hold

I'm driving along cos there's a crowd
The whole reason I can't see
A night on my head and you should know girl
Two is the best company
Heaven I will show ya
Hold my arms around ya
Everything I do and I say
That's Ok sure want it right
Every single day and every single night
We'll sail away on the way to your soul
We'll sail away to have and to hold
'Cos that's that Ok sure want it right

Every single day every single night
We'll sail away on the way to your soul
We'll sail away to have and to hold

Too have and to hold, too have and hold
Too have and to hold, too have and hold
Too have and to hold, too have and hold
Too have and to hold, too have and hold
Too have and to hold, too have and hold
Too have and to hold, too have and hold
Too have and to hold, too have and hold
Too have and to hold, too have and hold
