

Toploader, You In Stone

Come meet the saviour of this town
She's come to save you going down
She is the maiden of your mind
She is the maiden of your time
Take her home
There's nothing more that I can say, I'm a bird without a song today
But I'll give it all to you to know, cast a song I sent to you in stone

Come meet the saviour hold on to your soul
Come meet the saviour she'll eat you whole
She'll take it home

There's nothing more that I can say, I'm a bird without a song today
But I'll give it all to you to know, cast a song I sent to you in stone

Well there's nothing more that I can say, I'm a bird without a song today
But I'll give it all to you to know, cast a song I sent to you in stone
