

Tora Tora, Faith Healer

Walking with your eyes closed
Down a dead end street
You think you're never coming back
That's when your heart begins to bleed, yeah-e-ah
Wandering in circles
And you don't know where to go

Let me take the rain
Let me take the pain
And wash it away

I'd do anything give anything for you
When your love's blinded my eyes can see, yeah-e-ah
I'd do anything give everything it's true
Feel what I'm feeling, make you a believer
I'll be your faith healer

Came without a warning
Tore you world apart
Lost dreams and bad memories
Have kept me in the dark, yeah-e-yeah-e-ah
You can keep running
Running from the shadows of the past

Let me clear the rain
Let me take the pain
And wash it away

I'd do anything give anything for you
When your love's blinded my eyes can see, yeah-e-ah
I'd do anything give everything it's true
Feel what I'm feeling, make you a believer
I'll be your faith healer

Walking with your eyes closed
Down a dead end street
You think you're never coming back
That's when your heart begins to bleed

I'd do anything give anything for you
When your love's blinded my eyes can see, yeah-e-ah
I'd do anything give everything it's true
Feel what I'm feeling, make you a believer
I'll be your faith healer

I'd do anything give anything for you
When your love's blinded my eyes can see, yeah-e-ah
I'd do anything give everything it's true
Feel what I'm feeling, make you a believer
I'll be your faith healer

I'll be your faith healer
I'll be your faith healer
