

Tori Amos, Fire On The Side (From Y Can't Tori F

purple sunset
orange moon
i'm alone again
without you
i knew someone
had to lose
kiss goodbye
go back to your separate life that you have with her ashes blow
in the windy sky
take my heart
as you go
CHORUS
baby it burns
baby it burns
baby it burns
to be your
fire on the side
taste my tears
see how they burn
baby it burns
fire on the side
purple sunset
orange moon
how can the music play
when the only band
is made of gold
wrapped around
your hand
that i used to hold
against my chest
every night
but i still can hope
you will see
i'm your home
Repeat Chorus
i knew someone
kiss goodbye
you have with her
as you go
Repeat Chorus
