Tori Amos, Sweet The Sting

With a strut into the room
With his hat cocked sure defiantly
He said "I, I have heard
That you can play the way I like it to be played."
I said, "I can play, anyway that you want.
But first I want, I want to know

Baby is it sweet sweet
Sweet the sting
Is it real this infusion
Can it heal where others before have failed?
If so then somebody
Shake shake me sane
'cause I am inching ever closer to the tip of this scorpion's tail"

He said "I laid my weapons down with my pistol Fully loaded, a hunted man To my root, will it end Or begin in your cinnabar juice?"

Is it sweet sweet
Sweet the sting
Is it real this infusion
Can it heal where others before have failed?
If so then somebody
Shake shake me sane
'cause I am inching ever closer to the tip of this scorpion's tail"

Love let me breathe Breathe you in Melt the confusion Until there is There is your - union
