

Tori Kelly, Change Your Mind

he came to me like a song like one I knew all along and daddy, he got a hold on me I know you think that it's wrong but he grew up on me like a rose the sweetest I've ever known I swear that he got a hold on me and now I can't let him go no one ever said it was easy

and I love him,
you gotta believe me
no it don't seem right but I'll change your mind, mind
trust in me
I'ma need you blessing
I love him
I'm confessing
if it takes my life I'ma change your mind

he spoke to me like the rain I knew that I would have to see him again and as he poured out his heart on me I was a moth to a flame..

and I love him,
no it don't seem right
trust in me
I'ma need you blessing
I love him
I'm confessing
if it takes my life

you look at me like the sun and I can see that your mind's made up but daddy, he got a hold on me I swear that he is the one
