

Tori Kelly, Silent (z filmu Dawca Pamięci)

Wake up in a new day, but it don't feel that new,
Same faces around me with the same point of view
Everything is perfect, and everything's okey
Just swallow the lies and let your emotions fade
But my heart won't be quiet, I feel a change

No more black and white, this life's too colorful
Beautiful, don't know know what lies ahead, but

I'm ready now, it's time
(Gotta go, gotta get out of this town
Leave my fear behind
(Nothing left for me here, can't stick around)
My dreams are loud and my heart wide awake
And all I know is I'm not meant to be silent

Wake up to a new voice telling me where to Go, sounds like i got no choice, but to keep on this road
Got my own opinion, my own words to say
Got my own vision so I know I can't stay, there's No looking back now, I feel a change

I'm ready now, it's time
(Gotta go, gotta get out of this town
Leave my fear behind
(Nothing left for me here, can't stick around)
My dreams are loud and my heart wide awake
And all I know is I'm not meant to be silent

No more black and white, this life's too colorful
Beautiful, don't know know what lies ahead, but

I'm ready now, it's time, leave my fear behind
My dreams are loud and my hearts wide awake
And all I know is, I'm not meant to be silent
(I'm ready know it's time, yeah)

Gotta go, gotta get out of this town
(Leave my fear behind me)
Nothing left for me hear can't stick around
(I'm ready now, it's time, yeah)
(I'm ready know it's time, yeah)
Gotta go, gotta get out of this town
(And leave my fear behind me)
(I'm ready now it's time, yeah)
My dreams are loud and my heart's wide awake
And all I know is I'm not meant to be silent
