

Tosteer, The Frown

What you have done
Emptied my soul
Just go away
Leave me alone
Won't say the words
We've already know
Take all your staff
Mine is the frown
I won't shut the door
To let the breeze in
I'll close my eyes
To what I could see
Won't say the words
We've already know
Take all your staff
Mine is the frown
I hope I'll never see you
I hope I'll never see you
I hope I'll never see you
I will be fine
I hope you won't be
For all the time
You've wasted on me
Don't say the words
You've already known
Turn off the lights
Mine is the frown
I hope I'll never see you
I hope I'll never see you
I hope I'll never see you
