

Tove Lo, Cycles

what's your name
i can tell you our story before we get into the game
we fall head over heels over night
see my face in your future im in your future in your nights

we're intense
on a lip lock now 24/7
don't want it to end
but realities waiting
they say better
come up for air soon
make a change

falling again
don't understand
never my plan no

I'm in the cycle
I admit it!
how can I change it
when I don't know
when I;m in it
in a cycle
swear this is different
don't wanna end it
you leave than I kept spinning I'm in a cycle
don't mean we ain't just cause I talk about the things I;ve don before you
in a cycle

you're afraid
the way I love you now and my love in the past
are the same and the things that I say are exactly what I used to tell them and hat really hurts me but I know

I'm in the cycle
I admit it!

guess I'm romantic in a way why don't you catch me when I sway cause when my heart falls out of place I know

I'm in the cycle
