

Tove Styrke, YouYouYou

I'm in love with someone new
Still, I'm dreaming about you
All the phases in my life
Have your name etched with a knife
See the velvet in the sky
Setting softly in the night
Fingertips run down my spine
I know everything is right

But it's you you you on my mind
You you you on my mind
You you you on my mind
It's you you you on my mind
(Oooh)
You you you on my mind
You you you on my mind

When my heart is turning blue
Got someone to change my mood
And there's nothing we won't do
But when we kiss I think of you

If I saw your face I'd have a heart attack
I'm not trying to say that I want you back
Lying awake thinking everything is fine
When I'm without you I don't feel complete
Cause anyone can come and sweep me off my feet but

It's you you you on my mind
You you you on my mind
You you you on my mind
It's you you you on my mind
(Oooh)
You you you on my mind
You you you on my mind

Heart attack
Want you back
You you you on my mind
You you you on my mind
Feel complete
Off my feet
You you you on my mind

But it's you you you on my mind
You you you on my mind
You you you on my mind
It's you you you on my mind
(Oooh)
You you you on my mind
You you you on my mind
