

Tower Of Power, Love Just Let Me Hold You

All has been equal
It's just not the same
All things considered
I was to blame
Since I insisted, on playing my game
You walked out
Walked right out of my life

Love, just let me hold you
A nother day
I don't need to control you
Not at your way
I just want to love you
What more can I say
Darling, please come back to stay

I never suspected
I'd feel so alone
Put things in perspective
I should have known
Somehow I got here
All on my own
You walked out
Walked right out of my life

Love, just let me hold you
A nother day
I don't need to control you
Not at your way
I just want to love you
What more can I say
Darling, please come back
Darling, please come back to stay
Let me love you the rest of my days
Ohh, baby, come with me, aaah

Love, just let me hold you
A nother day
I don't need to control you
Not at your way
I just want to love you
What more can I say
Darling, please come back to stay
Yeah yeah, please come back, to stay
Yeaaah, please come back
(please come back), come back baby
please come back to stay, baby
Come back to stay baby, yeah yeah
Please, please, come back to stay
Just let me love me,
Oh, I just wanna hold you,
yeah yeah yeah yeah
