

Townes Van Zandt, Little Sundance #2

by Townes Van Zandt
When I'm with you, babe, I just can't be lonely
When I'm away, babe,
I think of you only
What can I do, babe,
to get back to you, babe, I do anything that you say

The night she is a sapphire full of blue desire follow her love fire higher and higher
What can I do, babe,
to stay her with you babe at least till the east turn to grey

Just you and me, girl, the stars and the real whirl spinning the minutes away

The darkness is passing she's never long lasting but my love ain't leaving through hurtin' or pleasin' I am tellin' you true, babe, ask me to do, babe, I'll trade all my treasures for you

The daylight are flashing our hearts could be laughing if only you wanted them to for just you and me, girl, the sun shine and turmoil will spill from a basket of blue
