

Trace Aber, Beard Full Of Acne

Woke up, one morning Got up, looked in the mirror couldn't believe what I saw then I barfed, and I puked.

looked down at the mat and I I began to cry, like a man then I started to realize I was living one big lie.

I have a beard full of acne
gross
beard full of acne
la la la sick
I poked too hard
the ooy-gooy stuff began to drip all over so I ripped them away

I screamed, for like an hour then the cops, came with power they barfed, and puked all over my sofa and couches yea.

there goes my plan, to not slip oh my god, this is amazingly sick then I started to realize
I was living one big lie.

gross
beard full of acne
so I ripped them away.

that's my story, as you see that's the last time I've ever seen acne now it's over and I'm glad 'cause I'm a loser, and I'm sad.

beard full of acne
so I ripped them away.

la la la la la la la la la gross Sick la la la la la la la la la sick
