Trace Adkins, Songs About Me

I met a guy on the red eye He spotted my guitar And said what do you do? I said, I sing for a living, Country music mixed with A little rock and a little blues

He said I'm sorry

But I've never been crazy bout that twang and trains and hillbilly thing What ever made you want to sing stuff like that?

I just looked at him and laughed and said

Cause it's songs about me

And who I am

Songs about loving and living

And good hearted women and family and God

Yeah they're all just

Songs about me

Songs about me

So I offered him tickets

I said you'll see what I mean

If you show up tonight

He said I doubt you'll change my opinion

I'll be kind of busy, but hey man, I'll try

Then later on when we finished our songs

About scars and cars and broken hearts

I saw him, he was standing there

Right next to the stage

And he shouted

Man you were right

It was like you sang those

Songs about me

And who I am

Songs about loving and living

And good hearted women and family and God

Yeah they're all just

Songs about me

Songs about me

So I'll just keep on singing

'til I hear the whole world singing those

Songs about me

And who I am

Songs about loving and living

And good hearted women and family and God

Yeah they're all just

Songs about me

Songs about me
