

Tracy Bonham, Dandelion

all my life I thought I was the one to save the world it would come easy now I'm old enough to sit around and piss and moan instead

Plant a tree and I will gladly admire its beauty 10 to 12 inches
don't expect that I will get out of my chair to watch it grow

And I was a blooming flower blossoming from the seed
turn my back and turn to
weed

those are people with their votes and all them hippie thoughts they do it better if I got involved I'd only get in everybody's way

Shine my shoes and I won't say a word behind your back yeah we're all brothers don't expect that I will share my plate when your ribs start to show

and I was a blooming flower

dandelion dandelion souls of you and me how can you smell so bad but look so pretty?

I was a blooming flower
