

Tracy Byrd, No Ordinary Man

Eight seconds ain't very long to live
But tonight he barely made five
He gave all that he had to give
But the big bull won tonight
He climbs into that old pickup
Black coffee in his hand
Rodeo ain't no ordinary life
But a cowboy ain't no ordinary man

Chorus:

Well he rides just to keep his spirit alive
Makin' money for his wife and kids
He tried other kinds of work
But nothing ever seemed to fit
Oh he loves the smell of a Brahma bull
The feel of leather in his hand
Well Rodeo ain't no ordinary life
But a cowboy ain't no ordinaryman

He's got a gold buckle on his mind
And he don't ride to loose
No matter how bad he hurts
He'll tip his hat to the fans
Rodeo ain't no ordinary
But a cowboy ain't no ordinary man

Repeat Chours:

He's an extra ordinary man
