

Trading Yesterday, Under My Skin

Shadow days come to haunt me here
To wrap around me
Dark and cold to hide the sunlight from my eyes
I can not see beyond these clouds surrounding
I will not forget that this is not the end
Under my skin
Under these scars
Take me again
Tear me apart
Cause I wanna see
Everything you are
Til all that's left
Is not myself
This is life every second here
Gripping tighter
Empty praise to all the things I fear inside
But I know that you will rise up from these ashes
Tomorrow will be the light that guides me
Under my skin
Under these scars
Take me again
Tear me apart
Cause I wanna see
Everything you are
Til all that's left
Is not myself
Take away everything
Burn away all of me
As I break I believe
You will come to rescue
Under my skin
Under these scars
Take me again
Tear me apart
Cause I wanna see
Everything you are
Til all that's left
Is not myself
Under my skin
Under these scars
Take me again
Tear me apart
Cause I wanna see
Everything you are
Til all that's left
Is not myself
Take away everything
Burn away all of me
As I break I believe
You will come to rescue
You will come to rescue...
