

Trail Of Tears, As It Penetrates

(Hansen, K.R. Hagen, Thorsen, Nordhus. Lyrics: Thorsen, Nordhus)

When your thoughts are carried down the savage filthy lane and winter flushes feelings down the drain Let me be the one who pulls you towards the sun Let me be the one to chase your demons on the run

(Chorus:)

The future is memories to be shared and we know those memories will remain The more I try, the more I love and the more I do makes the demons fly and the day you die will even make the flowers cry

Venomous feelings as your thoughts are dragged through the smoke of life
As it penetrates it's time to cease the day Intoxication to control the hate Whatever comes will kill your faith Leave it be and pour the blame all over me

(Chorus)
