

Trail Of Tears, Poisonous Tongues

(Hansen, K.R. Hagen, Thorsen, Nordhus. Lyrics: Thorsen)

Dive into my arms now that all is forgotten
and walk with me hand in hand towards the end No reason to attempt once you've been kissed by poisonous tongues I watch my hope as it hangs pale from an old fragile rope

Dive into my arms now that all is forgotten
and walk with me hand in hand towards the end

(Chorus:)
Present fear is consequence Smothered in my common sense Will let our history be past So we can sin together

Dive into my arms now that all is forgotten
and walk with me hand in hand

I'll leave it all behind and descend into your arms

Despite my promise
Despite what I already said
I'll leave it all behind and I'll fall into your arms

If you could only open up my eyes and wipe them clean from all this malice
I could have bought some time to lace my damnation

(Chorus)
