

Trail Of Tears, Watch You Fall

Hiding in the bottle
Away from all the tears of life
Watch you fall as you take a dive
And sinking to the bottom of the glass
Watch you fall as you're crawling helplessly
In the corner of despair
Watch you fall in the bottomless pit
To escape from the past
And your fears within

I release my anger
To the once I cannot see
My disease attracts me
To what is wrong for me

Hiding in the bottle
You always try to drown the guilt
Watch you fall as your life gives in
You're strangled by the lack of redemption
Watch you fall as the poison spreads within
And the cold hand prepares for the end
Watch you fall into the savage domain
'cause you can't face life
As it was meant to be

Turning away
Into sadness
Taken away
Into madness

I release my fury
To the ones I cannot see
As my consciousness tells me
What is wrong for me

See me fall

Hiding in the bottle
Away from all the tears of life
Watch you fall as you take a dive
And sinking to the bottom of the glass
Watch you fall as you're crawling helplessly
In the corner of despair
Watch you fall in the bottomless pit
To escape from the past
And your fears within

Turning away
Into sadness
Taken away
Into madness
