

Trans Atlantic Crush, Scream

Baby, what if I slide, a little closer to you
So I, can see the blue in your eyes
Tell me, do you mind if I lie this promise to you
If I, if I promise to take my eyes from you
Scream if you want to, in your mind
Scream if you want to, 'cause your mine
Baby, what if I cry 1,000 tears over you
Would you believe me, when I lie
Tie me, tied to the wheel, so I feel just what you feel
Will you, will you promise to save the surprise
Crushing, crushed like a trans Atlantic telegram
Telling, that you just can't take it no more, from you
Chorus
