

Transition, Sharkbait

You've taken this too far.
Do you know how this feels?
Your subtle comments,
Little whispers,
Tiny words,
You're bringing me down.

I try but something keeps on getting in the way
Here's a song to let you know that I'm not afraid.
I've got some news for you...
I'm better off without you now,
That's what it comes down to.

Tell me friend,
What is the point of this game?
Are you trying to bring me down?
Your opposition,
Thanks for playing,
Please try again,
You can't stop my love.

I try but something keeps on getting in the way
Here's a song to let you know that I'm not afraid.
I've got some news for you...
I'm better off without you now,
That's what it comes down to.

Down on my knees.
Please take me away
From everything I hate.
Forgiving the wrong.
For making it right
making it right, making it right...

I try but something keeps on getting in the way
Here's a song to let you know that I'm not afraid.
I've got some news for you...
I'm better off without you now,
That's what it comes down to.

yeah that's what it comes down to, and I'll run away from you.

Your subtle comments,
Little whispers,
Tiny words,
You can't stop my love.
